Treat yourself

Just because it's winter, doesn't mean you should skip the indulgent treatments. A specialist's touch can give you what your skin needs, so look for something you can leave on without residue. We don't forget about your lips, eyes and hands. In the mood for your body, they can't always be covered up, so make sure to coat them in a protective layer. For eyes, invest in a hydrator serum that has the ability to brighten, but also refresh - even better, get it with a built-in color tint. In the mood to brighten to treat darkness and signs of age, look for a rich eye-hand cream close to when your hands feel through along with a multipurpose balm for your lips.
